

Spotted Lanternfly – On the Doorstep Or Already In Our Fields?
 2019 NYS IPM Program Conference
 August 15, 2019
 Broome County CCE Farmers Market
 Binghamton, NY

8:30 – 8:45 am	Welcome: NY State Assemblywoman Lupardo
8:45 – 9:00 am	Spotted Lanternfly, Why Do We Care? – Tim Weigle, NYS IPM Program
9:00 – 10:00 am	News from the Front Line. Current research on SLF biology, movement and management. Keynote Speaker – Julie Urban, Penn State University
10:00 – 10:30 am	Containing the Invasion. Pennsylvania’s efforts of Regulatory Actions, Quarantines and the current permitting process Shane Philipps, PDA
10:30 – 11:00 am	Keeping SLF at the Doorstep, NYS response to SLF. Margaret Kelly, NYSDAM
11:00 – 11:15	Break
11:15 – 11:45	The NYS External Quarantine and You. Who Needs to Comply and How Does it Work? Ethan Angell, NYSDAM – NYS SLF ICS
11:45 – 12:15 pm	Panel discussion with questions from audience
12:15 – 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 – 1:45 pm	I Can’t Go Outside! Impact of SLF on green industry and residential areas Emelie Swackhamer PSU Extension –
1:45 – 2:15 pm	Nature to the Rescue! Using Fungal Pathogens for SLF Management. Eric Clifton, Cornell University
2:15 – 2:45 pm	Working with Your Local PRISM to Prevent the SLF Invasion. Patty Wakefield Brown, FL PRISM
2:45 – 3:00 pm	Break and coffee
3:00 – 3:30 pm	Who, What, When, Where and Why? New York State Outreach Efforts for SLF. Emma Antolos, NYSDEC
3:30 – 4:00 pm	The Million Dollar Impact: Management Strategies for the Grape Industry and other Perennial Fruit Crops. Tim Weigle, NYS IPM Program
4:00 – 4:30 pm	Q & A, Discussion and Evaluations